Parents should bring their child's birth certificate and a council tax bill as proof of residency and a copy of missives / let agreement if appropriate. It would be helpful to see a Baptism certificate, but only if one is available. A new school handbook is available from the office to all who want a copy. These handbooks will be distributed automatically to the parents of all children enrolling their child at school for the first time. Please inform any neighbours or friends who may have children of this age.
